

Harbor Transit Multi-Modal Transit System Joins Community of Local Buyers with the MITN Purchasing Group

Today, the Harbor Transit Multi-Modal Transit System announces it has joined the MITN Purchasing Group, a regional purchasing community by BidNet.

GRAND HAVEN, Mich. (PRWEB) August 29, 2018 -- Today, the Harbor Transit Multi-Modal Transit System announces it has joined the MITN Purchasing Group, a regional purchasing community by BidNet. Local government agencies throughout Michigan utilize the MITN Purchasing Group for bid and vendor management. Harbor Transit, which serves the City of Grand Haven, Grand Haven Township, City of Ferrysburg, Village of Spring Lake, and Spring Lake Township invites all potential vendors to register online with the MITN Purchasing Group to access its upcoming solicitations by visiting www.bidnetdirect.com/mitn.

Harbor Transit joins the MITN Purchasing Group and the community of over 200 participating local government agencies located throughout Michigan. Along with a variety of bid and vendor management solutions, Harbor Transit gains access to a bid library to help with bid creation, a shared pool of vendors, and association with like-minded purchasing professionals in the area.

“Collaboration is important to us,” says Tiffany Bowman, Transportation Director of Harbor Transit. “We think the bid library will really help us save time in drafting more effective bids and accessing specifications,” Ms. Bowman continued. “Plus it makes it easier for our vendors to access our bids.”

Vendors interested in doing business with Harbor Transit and other nearby government agencies are encouraged to register at www.bidnetdirect.com/mitn. Benefits of joining the MITN Purchasing Group include:

- Centralized location for bids from all 204 participating agencies
- Bid alerts customized to the vendors’ products or services
- Reliable and timely delivery of notifications, addendums and documents
- Advanced notice of Term Contract expiration
- E-Bid and E-Quote Submission

The MITN Purchasing Group is one of BidNet’s regional purchasing groups throughout the country. It provides Harbor Transit a bid and vendor management solution, document and addendum distribution, and tracking of all activity throughout their procurement process.
