Press Release

Explore Transportation at the State Capitol

Santa Fe – Tomorrow is Transportation Day at the State Capitol. We invite you to come by and visit our booths in the Rotunda. There will be one from each of the New Mexico Department of Transportation's six districts and the General Office as well as the NMDOT's Equipment, Aviation, Traffic Management, Traffic Safety, Planning, Human Resources, Park & Ride and Public Relations departments. Several local and regional transportation providers will also be participating and there will be giveaways including ENDWI shirts and other items.

The purpose of this event is to stress the importance of transportation as it relates to our everyday lives as well as the economy. It also gives legislators an up close look at various transportation-related programs and projects throughout the state.

Transportation Day runs from 8:00 am – 3:00 pm., Friday, February 14.

We hope to see you there!
