

SemaConnect has Installed Electric Vehicle Charging Stations at Arrow Electronics' Corporate Offices

The stations will be located in Centennial and Englewood, Colorado

Centennial, Colo. (PRWEB) January 05, 2016 -- Arrow Electronics, a global provider of products, services and solutions to industrial and commercial users of electronic components and enterprise computing solutions, installed seven SemaConnect electric vehicle (EV) charging stations at its corporate offices on Dry Creek Road in Centennial and Lima Street in Englewood.

“Arrow Electronics is always ahead of the curve when it comes to emerging technology,” said Mark Pastrone, vice president of business development at SemaConnect, a leader in Class A commercial EV charging solutions. “Arrow’s focus on corporate responsibility and innovative technology pairs perfectly with the addition of our charging stations.”

Arrow maintains a robust corporate social responsibility (CSR) program that is focused on making the world a better place for us all—now and five years out. The installation of SemaConnect charging stations reflects Arrow’s ongoing commitment to CSR and the environment.

“Arrow is always looking for innovative ways that technology can help us live more sustainably,” said Paul Nelson, vice president of global real estate at Arrow. “Installing these EV charging stations is just one example of Arrow’s commitment to the environment.”
