

Inventor and InventHelp Client Develops Secure Storage Unit for Pickup Truck Beds (FLA-2677)

A Pennsylvania-based inventor firm, InventHelp is submitting the TOOL BOX PLUS to companies for their consideration.

PITTSBURGH, PA (PRWEB) December 28, 2015 -- A Pennsylvania-based inventor firm, InventHelp is submitting the TOOL BOX PLUS to companies for their consideration.

"I needed additional secure storage space in my pickup truck bed," said an inventor from Clewiston, Fla. "I devised this storage unit to keep my gear safe and secure from theft and inclement weather."

He developed the TOOL BOX PLUS to offer additional secure storage space in the truck bed. The unit conceals items from view. It safeguards stored gear from theft and the elements. The device ensures that the contents remain secure during transport, which prevents items from rolling around the truck bed. Furthermore, the invention provides added peace of mind.

The original design was submitted to the Ft. Lauderdale office of InventHelp. It is currently available for licensing or sale to manufacturers or marketers.
