

RNR Tire Express and Custom Wheels Celebrates Successful Year at Annual Franchise Meeting.

RNR Tire Express and Custom Wheels brought their franchisees together at the Renaissance-Tampa International Plaza Hotel, for their annual franchise meeting and celebrates best year in history.

Tampa, Florida (PRWEB) January 12, 2016 -- RNR Tire Express and Custom Wheels franchisees gathered together at the Renaissance, Tampa Airport. Franchisees from 21 states (over 100 attendees) traveled to Tampa, as they do every January, for training, sharing, a vendor show, and their annual awards banquet.

The conference celebrated a year where RNR Franchisees experienced significant growth at the store level. In his opening remarks, Larry Sutton, President and Founder of RNR, communicated a clear vision for where the company was headed and provided keen insight into industry trends. RNR locations are servicing more customers than ever before and are focused at providing additional service options to customers and positioning RNR as a top retailer in the tire industry.

At this year's annual awards banquet, over 70% of all stores were inducted into the Million Dollar Club, and seven stores were inducted into the Two-Million Dollar Club . The Most Improved Store was awarded to Scott Good in Louisville, Kentucky and Most Improved Franchise went to Full-O-Pep wheels, LLC based in Indiana. Franchisee of the Year went to Gulfcoast L&P INC, headquartered in Mississippi.

Larry Sutton had this to say about the franchise system: "We are very fortunate to work with talented, visionary franchisees that care about the systems growth and contribute to the direction of our franchise and business. Everyone shares their successes and is always available to help fellow franchisees. They all learn from each other, which helps RNR grow and blossom into a truly great partnership and opportunity. I am humbled and grateful that these folks have chosen to fly the RNR banner over their operations."
