

SemaConnect has Installed Electric Vehicle Charging Stations at The Plaza Suites Luxury Hotel in Silicon Valley

The charging stations will run on energy that comes from 100% renewable resources

Washington, DC (PRWEB) January 11, 2016 -- The Plaza Suites Hotel Silicon Valley at Santa Clara has chosen SemaConnect as their electric vehicle charging station vendor for the installation of a brand new amenity to their property. Two stations will now be located in the parking garage of hotel, located in the Santa Clara area of Silicon Valley, California. The stations will add to the hotel's focus on providing sustainable resources to their guests, as well as targeting the many electric vehicle drivers in the area.

“Our stations add a unique amenity to The Plaza Suites Hotel,” said Don MacNeil, Director of Sales at SemaConnect. “The adoption of electric vehicles is growing rapidly in the Santa Clara area. Hotels are now recognizing that there is a growing need for charging stations at their properties in order to meet driver and guest demand. By adding this new green amenity to their property, The Plaza Suites Hotel is able to set themselves apart as a luxury hotel that provides the most modern amenities to their guests and visitors.”

The Plaza Suites Hotel Silicon Valley at Santa Clara runs on energy from 100% renewable resources. The addition of charging stations highlights their commitment to bringing a sustainable and green hotel to visitors and to local EV drivers. The charging stations will charge a small energy fee for use, and will be open to all electric vehicle drivers, including hotel guests and members of the public.
