Los Angeles, CA (PRWEB) January 22, 2016 -- Luxury Line Auto Rental is a Los Angeles based car rental agency that has rented luxury autos since 1989. According to a recent article published January 10th in the Detroit Free Press, luxury model car brands such as Rolls Royce, Lamborghini, Bentley, and Aston Martin generated a significant amount of buzz at the Detroit Auto Show's official kickoff event on January 9, which shows that high-end brands are still as popular as ever. When eyeing a Land Rover, one of the article's interviewees says, "This is the ultimate in styling and excess...everything in this room is completely out of this world." Rolls Royce also appears to be maintaining its immense car buff following and Beverly Hills-based Luxury Line Auto Rental notes that when it comes to true luxury and performance, few auto makers are able to achieve the level of superiority set by the famed British manufacturer.

The agency also adds that many of their rental customers comment on how their vehicles are so superb that they couldn't possibly be improved upon. When driving one of these vehicles off the lot, Luxury Line comments, customers will only have to enjoy the thrill of the road as they enjoy the pleasures of one of the world's finest vehicles.

According to Luxury Line Auto Rental, the most crucial qualities rental customers seek out in their luxury cars include:

- Sleek style – The car rental agency notes that, when customers want to pick up clients from the airport or entertain guests, choosing the most eye-catching auto demonstrates the driver's attention to style. From Rolls Royce's Ghost to Maserati's Ghibli Sedan, the rental agency offers a complete assortment of luxury models to choose from.
- Superior comfort – Whether you want your seats warmed, cooled, or ready to deliver a relaxing massage, the very finest high-end technology is only available in the most luxurious car models. Riders and drivers alike will fall in love with truly magnificent interiors found in Mercedes Benz, Bentley, and Rolls Royce vehicles. Once you set foot into one of these engineering masterpieces, the rental agency asserts, the renter's question about which car to select will be decided, even before starting up the vehicle's powerful engine.
- Unrivaled performance - Luxury Line Auto Rental adds that, while the sleek style of a Maserati or a Ferrari is the first thing that people notice about the cars, what's under the hood of each vehicle is also remarkably impressive. The Rolls Royce Wraith's turbocharged V12 engine can go from 0 to 60 mph in a jaw-dropping 4.2 seconds.

Luxury Line Auto Rental explains that they make every effort possible in making sure their vehicles are in top of the line condition, both mechanically and cosmetically, so renters get that fresh-off the showroom floor feeling every time they step into their rental car.
