

National Association of Professional Women Inducts Lorena Lee, Human Resources Management at Daimler, Into its VIP Woman of the Year Circle

Lorena Lee selected for her outstanding leadership and commitment within her profession

Garden City, NY (PRWEB) January 26, 2016 -- The National Association of Professional Women \(NAPW\) honors Lorena Lee as a 2015-2016 inductee into its VIP Woman of the Year Circle. She is recognized with this prestigious distinction for leadership in business. NAPW is the nation's leading networking organization exclusively for professional women, boasting 850,000 members and over 200 operating Local Chapters.

"I'm pleased to recognize Lorena with this important honor," said NAPW President Star Jones. "Her perseverance, work ethic and leadership qualities are an inspiration to all women."

"I believe that people are the most valuable asset of a company," said Lorena Lee, who has been in international human resources management for more than 25 years. Her experience includes all aspects of human resources including compliance, compensation and benefits, recruiting, training and labor relations.

Over the years, Ms. Lee has acquired an impressive resume of experience with Daimler, a world leader in car, truck and bus manufacturing. Her mastery of Spanish and English facilitated her rise within the Daimler empire when she joined the company as a Compensation Manager for its manufacturing arm in Mexico. Currently, Ms. Lee plays a dual role for Daimler as a Labor Relations Specialist for Thomas Built Buses and also holds the title of International Assignments for the company in Stuttgart, Germany.
