

White House Famous Presidential Limousines Video

(PRWEB) July 25, 2000 -- This compelling and historically accurate video will bring the viewer closer than ever before to several Presidential Cadillacs and Lincolns including the most famous car in the world, the blue 1961 Lincoln Continental in which President Kennedy rode through Dallas Texas on Friday November 22, 1963.

You will see these cars as they appeared during their White House years and how they survived the years through today.

No footage has ever been broadcast on TV.

Enjoy President Richard Nixon's amusing comments regarding a Lincoln at Camp David. More than 50 years of famous White House Presidential Lincolns and Cadillacs used by every president from Roosevelt through Clinton are included in this video.
