

Conway and O'Malley Tire Pros Announces Store Closure

Erie PA chain of automotive shops announces closure of their Peach Street location.

Erie, PA (PRWEB) January 01, 2013 -- Locally owned and operated Automotive Repair and Tire Store Conway and O'Malley has announced the closure of one of their stores located on 5535 Peach Street in Erie. Conway and O'Malley's loyal customers are encouraged to visit one of their two other Erie locations on Buffalo Road or Pittsburgh Ave.

Family owned and operated since 1981, Conway and O'Malley Tire Pros have served the Erie area for all tire repair and automotive needs. Always friendly, courteous, and professional, Conway and O'Malley takes pride in bringing the best quality service and products to their community. After many years of loyal service, Conway and O'Malley has announced the closure of one of their Erie stores on 5535 Peach Street, effective December 1, 2012.

In June, the Millcreek Health System purchased the surrounding property to grow and expand the area Hospital, reaching out to give more care to the community. With the closure of the Peach Street location, customers are encouraged to visit one of Conway and O'Malley's other two Erie locations, at 905 Pittsburgh Ave. or 4440 Buffalo Rd. to get the same, reliable automotive maintenance and repair with the friendly customer service that members of the Erie community have grown to trust. Co-owner John Conway has announced his intention to hopefully open a new Peach Street location in the future, but no plans have been made as of yet.
