Bloomington, MN (PRWEB) February 19, 2016 -- Third time is a charm for Sadler Power Train.

The Iowa-based company, now in its 42nd year of operation, has been named the 2015 Truck Parts & Service Distributor of the Year. It is the third straight year Sadler received a nomination.

“I would like to thank all of the Sadler Power Train team for their many years of hard work and dedication to our company,” SPT President John Sadler said.

Minimizer and Meritor sponsor the award, now in its 14th year.

“Distributor of the Year is the Best Picture Oscar for the aftermarket, and we’re incredibly proud to be involved with such a prestigious award,” Minimizer CEO/Chief Visionary Craig Kruckeberg said. “Congratulations to John and his team.”

The nomination period for the 2016 Distributor of the Year award begins in April and runs through June.
