

World Patent Marketing Review Committee Approves a New Child Safety Patent, I Got My Babies Back Is the Best Way for Parents to Watch over Their Children

World Patent Marketing Reviews A New Child Safety Patent. Will I Got My Babies Back Be the Next World Patent Marketing Low Cost Success Story?

Los Angeles, CA (PRWEB) March 29, 2016 -- World Patent Marketing, a vertically integrated manufacturer and distributor of patented products, announces I Got My Babies Back, a child safety patent that will help busy parents watch over their children.

"The Online Baby Product industry is worth $5 billion," says Scott Cooper, CEO and Creative Director of World Patent Marketing. "The Online Baby Product Sales industry is currently in the growth phase of its life cycle. It is expected to increase at an annualized rate of 13.2% over the 10 years to 2020."

"Generally, babies, newborns, and infants are left unattended in the vehicle," says Jerry Shapiro, Director of Manufacturing and World Patent Marketing Inventions. "There are more and more tragic incidences of busy parents, daycare workers, and other adults in a hurry or in a preoccupied state of mind, who get out of their car and forget that a baby or small child is strapped in the car seat in the backseat of the car."

I Got My Babies Back is a child safety patent that is truly needed in these modern times. It is an alarm system for safety of infants from being left out in vehicles with components including a pressure sensor, batteries, speaker, multiple set of actuating buttons and a recorder embodied inside a cushioned pillow or back rest. The alarm system with pressure sensors inside a back rest is used by the driver of the vehicle. The alarm system is in the form of a recorder connected to the pressure sensor and speaker and functions using battery power.

"Leaving a child inside a vehicle can change the lives of a family permanently," says inventor Victor S. "For a reasonably low cost, car seats can be equipped with I Got My Babies Back, a notification system that will get a responsible adult's attention when leaving a vehicle, thereby preventing such accidents from occurring."

Mary Lovelace, a mompreneur with twins from Boise, ID, has this to say about I Got My Babies Back: "Running a business with two infants is almost an impossible feat. Between the sleepless nights and the incessant crying, it's very difficult to concentrate. Having this child safety patent in my car assures me that I will never leave the twins unattended no matter how crazy my day gets. This is a lifesaver for us parents!"

I Got My Babies Back is easy to install child safety patent that can be used inside any type of vehicle.
