Peugeot is proud to announce that car owners and drivers have rated the Peugeot 308 a near perfect score of nine out of ten in their Reevo reviews of the car.

(PRWEB UK) 24 May 2016 -- Peugeot's stylish family car, the award-winning Peugeot 308, has always proved a firm favourite with the motoring industry and media, named Best Company Car to Buy in 2015 and crowned European Car of the Year in 2014. However, the most important plaudits are those from Peugeot drivers. Peugeot is proud to announce that car owners and drivers have rated the Peugeot 308 a near perfect score of nine out of ten in their Reevo reviews of the car.

Nearly 300 customers have provided a Reevo of their car, with an average nine out of ten rating across the board since the vehicle's re-launch in 2013.

The Peugeot 308 range, which includes the new 308 GTi by Peugeot Sport, has consistently been rated highly for comfort, build quality, performance and practicality.

'Fun, quiet, practical', 'Really nice drive' and 'Fantastic car' are snippets from just some of the most recent Reevo reviews.

The Peugeot 308 range includes the SW estate, which joined the line-up in 2014, with the sporty GT and the GTi models the year after.

The Peugeot 308 has been designed with the modern family in mind. Packed full of intuitive technology, and available with the Peugeot i-Cockpit to deliver an enhanced driving experience, this sporty family car is both practical and fun.

From school runs to morning commutes and longer holiday drives, the Peugeot 308 is fuel efficient, whatever your driving style. Featuring either PureTech petrol or BlueHDi diesel technology, the Peugeot 308 can achieve 91.1 MPG – keeping you going further.

From spring 2016, Peugeot 308 customers will get the chance to go further too, with Peugeot offering buyers the chance to enjoy a 48-hour test drive of its 308 range to truly get a feel for the vehicle.
