

Attorney Lance R. Fryrear Helping State Patrol Officers Disabled in Line of Duty

Attorney Lance R. Fryrear, of the Law Office of Lance R. Fryrear, supports Washington State Patrol Memorial Foundation with generous donation.

Lynnwood, WA (PRWEB) June 14, 2016 -- Defense attorney Lance R. Fryrear, founder of the Law Office of Lance R. Fryrear, is proud to announce he recently supported the Washington State Patrol Memorial Foundation at its 34th annual dinner by donating his condo for its live auction, which raised over $2,200. “It was an honor to support this wonderful foundation that provides financial assistance to Washington State Patrol employees who become disabled in the line of duty,” said Fryrear. “I donated to the auction as I was a prosecuting attorney for seven years prior to founding my defense firm. I have great respect for the Washington State Patrol, as our law enforcement officers are a vital part of our society and the criminal justice system. I urge everyone to contribute to this great cause.”

The Washington State Patrol Memorial Foundation was founded in 1982 exclusively for charitable, educational and benevolent purposes. In addition to helping patrol employees who become disabled in the line of duty, it assists surviving spouses and children of fallen officers and employees who die in the line of duty. The foundation also offers an education scholarship program for employees or dependent children.

The Washington State Patrol Memorial Foundation has provided over $1,700,000 in financial assistance and scholarships to many departmental employees, retirees and their families. Its programs are funded through employee contributions, outside donations, the annual dinner and raffle, as well as through the sale of collectable memorabilia.
