

It's GO, GO, GO! for the new Formula One season next month and your chance to drive off in a fabulous Mini One car.

Simply show that you've got what it takes to pick a winning Formula One team and you could be behind the wheel of a brand new Mini - complete with its own eye-catching chequered flag roof - when the season ends in October.

(PRWEB) March 10, 2002 -- fantasyfl.co.uk are offering this - and other superb individual race prizes - courtesy of Eastern BMW, Edinburgh.

If you think you know a thing or two about Formula One, then pick your team and join in the fun, following the winners and losers at this season's 17 GPs.

The ultimate Formula One fantasy game offers three different entry level options:

Individual Grand Prix (Entry fee: £10).

Complete season (£15)

Both individual and season (£20)

Individual GP race winners will each receive a Play Station 2 + game but will not be eligible for the end of season competition.

The rules couldn't be simpler - each entrant is given a budget of £40 million to buy two racing drivers, a car design, an engine and a tyre supplier. Points are scored, based on the actual results from the FIA World Championship.
