

Incoming NADA Chairman Bill Fox Featured in the January Issue of Car Biz Today Magazine

Bill Fox, partner in Fox Auto Group in New York, will take over as the 2015 chairman of the National Automobile Dealers Association later this month. Fox discusses his background in the auto industry, NADA's goals and objectives for 2015 and what dealers can expect this year.

Atlanta, Ga. (PRWEB) January 05, 2015 -- Bill Fox, who represents New York's franchised new-car dealer on the NADA board of directors, will be sworn in as the organization's chairman at this month's convention and expo in San Francisco. Car Biz Today asked Fox about his background in the industry, the organization's goals and objectives for 2015 and what auto dealers can expect this year.

“There are great economic benefits to having local businesses create well-paying jobs to sell, finance and service cars,” he said in discussing NADA's push to preserve the franchised dealership system. To read the full article, visit CBTNews.com.

Contact Information

Bridget Everett

CBT News

<http://www.cbtnews.com>

+1 678-221-2961

Online Web 2.0 Version

You can read the online version of this press release here.