

Audi Club steers toward South Seattle for June 21st gathering

Over 100 Audi owners and enthusiasts will put thier best wheels forward at the 3rd annual Audi Club Northwest show

(PRWEB) June 21, 2003 -- If youÂ□ve ever wanted to see dozens of Audi automobiles of all vintages, makes and models steer your way to Bison Creek Pizza and Pub in Burien, a suburb 15 minutes south of downtown Seattle. Â□ We are quite pleased to host such an impressive collection of Audis and the enthusiast who are passionate about themÂ□, says Mike and Connie, proprietors in the local pizzeria, a mainstay in Burien for over 20 years.

Several sponsors have made the June 21st event possible including ProFormance Racing School, FosterÂ□s Wheel Service, and University Audi. As the Club Activities Director for the Audi Club Northwest, Brian Presser, the proud owner of a 2001 Audi S4, encourages those that plan on attending, send him e-mail RSVP at audi@touchtechsystems.com.

The 5 PM event marks the 3rd annual gathering of the German born automobiles at the south Seattle establishment. Bison Creek not only serves outstanding gourmet pizza and pasta, but also takes pride in pouring hand crafted microbrews and wine produced in Washington State. Â□We love the combination of great food, fine microbrews and car owners who spend at least part of each day thinking of ways to improve their cars and the way they drive them,Â□ explains Bison Creeks Mike Rasmussen.

The restaurant is located 2 miles west of Sea-Tac Airport, 630 SW 153rd, in Burien. Plan on enjoying all the gourmet pizza, salad, soup and soda you can eat for $8:50. Media contact: Mike Rasmussen 206-244-8825
