Ontario, CA (PRWEB) September 14, 2016 -- Brad Schmett, of Brad Schmett Real Estate Group and Keller Williams Realty today announced that the Route 66 Cruisin' Reunion Classic Car and Hot Rod Show in Ontario over a 3-day weekend of September 16-18 will be a big boost for local home sales as enthusiasts from all over the state and even the nation head in to take advantage of the fun. Last year's event attracted over 200,000 car enthusiasts and spectators.

The beautiful and historic tree lined Euclid Avenue will be one of 22 city blocks that will be the host venue for the three day downtown Ontario extravaganza. Based on Euclid Avenue and the downtown streets near the City of Ontario Towne Square the three day agenda is action-packed starting on Friday night, September 16 and winding up on Sunday afternoon September 18. Live music, dozens of vendors and wall-to-wall classic cars and hot rods will make Ontario and historic Route 66, come alive as only Classic Cars can do!

Schmett observed, "This is one of the biggest car shows this side of Reno's Hot August Nights and with over 200,000 participants expected we should be treated to some of the most beautifully restored classic cars in the nation. Fortunately for my team and me, we have a simply stunning inventory of beautiful homes in and around the City of Ontario and we know that plenty of the attendees will be looking to purchase family homes or retirement homes during this busy time. It is our privilege to welcome them all."

Presented by the Greater Ontario Convention and Visitors Bureau historic Route 66 once again is the venue for Cruisin' contests, gorgeous convertibles, pristine low riders, sizzling hot rods, and Wicked Woodies at the biggest autumn party in town.
