

Children Explore Heavy-Duty Trucks at Family Event Supported by FirstService Residential

Touch-A-Truck event makes a difference for the community

Chicago, IL (PRWEB) September 14, 2016 -- FirstService Residential, Chicagoland's property management company leader, participated in a "Touch-A-Truck" event at one of its managed properties as part of the company's commitment to give back to the community. Lakewood Falls Community Association hosted the family-friendly event on Saturday, September 10, 2016 at Creekside Elementary School in Plainfield, IL. Approximately 500 people attended the event.

Children had the opportunity to sit-in, touch, discover and safely explore 16 full-sized vehicles, including a 5-ton army cargo truck, concrete mixer, fire engine, ambulance, lift truck, excavation equipment, dump trucks and more. Participants enjoyed free ice cream, courtesy of FirstService Residential.

This was the first year that Lakewood Falls Community Association hosted the event. "The children had a terrific time exploring the different trucks and equipment," said Elizabeth Sokacich, FirstService Residential property manager. "The event provided an inspired place to build great relationships with community members and make a difference in their lives."
