(PRWEB) March 14, 2003 -- Stuart, Florida -- For the vacationer who loves auto racing and/or the French Riviera, The Grand Prix Club Inc., a US-based tour operator, now offers special six-day vacation packages beginning in late May. The Monaco Grand Prix is considered to be the most exciting of all 16 Formula 1 races with the world's best Formula 1 drivers. They compete on a challenging street course that skirts the glamorous city of Monte Carlo.

The Grand Prix Club offers two vacation packages: the super luxurious Gold Package and the attractive Silver Package, marked under its brand Tours F1. Both packages include hotel accommodations at special rates, race tickets and access to V.I.P. facilities, race teams and drivers.

A special benefit for the Tours F1 guest is being able to watch the exciting race from a close, safe vantage point in complete comfort. Reason: Tours F1 has pre-reserved blocks of seats on balconies overlooking the racecourse. This special seating is usually reserved for V.I.P.s only.

After the race, Tours F1 guests can mingle with drivers and the many celebrities who flock to the races and the fabulous Monte Carlo Casino every year. Tours F1 guests can enjoy gourmet food in Monte Carlo or in charming waterside villages nearby. Or, they may want to venture to the mountains above Monaco to enjoy spectacular views of Monte Carlo, Nice and Italy.

Steve Cole, CEO of The Grand Prix Club emphasizes that everyone who signs up for the tour is treated as a guest, not a customer. Our very personal approach is designed to insure 100% customer satisfaction.

Grand Prix Packages are available from as low as $1995. The Grand Prix Club is a member of the ASTA (American Society of Travel Agents) and is licensed, insured and bonded. These Grand Prix F1 travel packages are commissionable.

For details, visit Tours F1 website at www.toursf1.com or call Steve Cole (877) 868-7731 in Stuart, Florida.
