

Dealer Specialties, Inc. Adds Automated eBay Listing Process to Suite of Vehicle Marketing Tools

Dealer Specialties, Inc., a division of Dominion Dealer Solutions and a leader in providing automobile dealers with data collection and distribution services, color digital photos, vehicle videos and descriptive used-vehicle window stickers, announced today a new online feature providing automotive dealers the ability to seamlessly update and transmit their vehicle inventory to eBay Motors.

Cincinnati, Ohio (PRWEB) January 3, 2007 -- Dealer Specialties, Inc., a division of Dominion Dealer Solutions and a leader in providing automobile dealers with data collection and distribution services, color digital photos, vehicle videos and descriptive used-vehicle window stickers, announced today a new online feature providing automotive dealers the ability to seamlessly update and transmit their vehicle inventory to eBay Motors.

Integrated into the existing Dealer Specialties Inventory Manager tool, dealers have quick and easy access to their online inventory. Dealers can post vehicles to the eBay Motors marketplace and efficiently and conveniently create eBay Motors listings by utilizing their existing Dealer Specialties online classified listings.

"Our Inventory Management Tool automates the listing process, making it easy for dealers to create, manage and market their vehicle inventory from one place," states Brian Page, General Manager Dealer Specialties.
