

New Online Retailer Caters to Owners of Late-Model American Muscle Cars

BoltOnMuscle.com caters to vehicle enthusiasts who own late-model American muscle cars. The retail site carries a handpicked selection of performance parts and accessories for late-model Camaros, Corvettes, Challengers, Chargers, Magnums, and Mustangs.

Compton, Calif. (PRWEB) January 04, 2012 -- Transamerican Auto Parts, a leader in the automotive aftermarket, has launched BoltOnMuscle.com, a retail website that caters to the owners of late-model American muscle cars. BoltOnMuscle.com offers a handpicked selection of performance parts and accessories for late-model Camaros, Corvettes, Challengers, Chargers, Magnums, and Mustangs.

Specifically, BoltOnMuscle.com carries parts for 2010-2011 Camaros, 2005-2011 Corvettes, 2005-2011 Chrysler 300s, 2009-2011 Challengers, 2006-2011 Chargers, 2005-2011 Magnums, and 2005-2011 Mustangs. Because this application set is so focused, the site asks shoppers to begin their product search by specifying their vehicle. The site then displays only products that suit the selected application, which keeps shoppers from having to sift through products they don't want or need. The parts selection includes high-quality suspension parts, bumpers, exhaust components, brakes, transmissions, lighting products, electrical components, and performance parts on BoltOnMuscle.com.

The site offers free shipping on UPS Ground orders over $99, plus a 90-day price match guarantee. Shoppers can request a price match on the site or they can contact the BoltOnMuscle.com phone sales staff toll-free for further information. The phone lines are open daily.

BoltOnMuscle.com is also supported by an extensive distribution system, consisting of five stocked warehouses located throughout the United States. Since most orders are processed and shipped within two business days, enthusiasts can expect to receive their parts promptly.
