

emag blog www theusmat Reports Suspended Drivers Licenses Handed Out like Placebos by state DMV's are creating hardship and havoc

DMV throughout the country are dispensing drivers license suspensions for minor infractions and creating a new class of criminal by well intentioned state legislators.

(PRWEB) November 16, 2003 -- Don't pay a parking ticket, have your seat belt unfastened and for one reason or another don't pay the fine. Your drivers license may wind up suspended by your states DMV. Worse yet your state may be criminalizing driving under suspension in resulting you to paying lawyers big bucks and you paying hefty fines trying to keep out of the pokey. Plus getting hit with a hefty insurance rate increase.

Also in an extensive veterans pages section theusmat is advising that many states do not accept the VA ID card as valid identification. causing hardship to many veterans. The article explains the detail the VA goes through in issuing the photo ID card and urges that it be accepted as a legal form of identity wether through legislation or executive order.

Urging a regining in of your local DMV and legalizing the VA ID card are breaking stories in the emagazine blog theusmat

Contact Information

Lee J Keslin

<http://www.theusmat.com>

1608-3392936

Online Web 2.0 Version

You can read the online version of this press release here.