

Get Your Car Fixed For Free

You can have your vehicle fixed for free if you own a GM car or truck that needs repairs.

(PRWEB) December 10, 2003 -- Austin, Texas- Do you have a car or truck that needs expensive repairs? Well, you may be in luck. Car manufacturers such as General Motors may repair your vehicle for free. It's true! General Motors has a special program that provides cost assistance to its most loyal customers. The purpose of this program is to retain and reward loyal customers. The level of cost assistance will depend on a variety of factors. You can take advantage of this great opportunity to have your vehicle fixed for free by purchasing our special report entitled, "Get Your Car Fixed For Free". The report provides you with 5 easy steps that will help you convince General Motors to fix your car for free or to get a significant cost reduction towards your repairs.

Our special report will help you save hundreds of dollars on the cost of repairs for your vehicle. You can purchase the report simply by sending an email to: richardmcnairy@yahoo.com

Contact Information

Richard McNairy

Online Web 2.0 Version

You can read the online version of this press release here.