(PRWeb UK) January 6, 2011 -- Thousands of Britons planning to start a new life in 2011 are being given a helping hand with car buying website, wewillbuyyourcar

Around 350,000 leave Britain each year to make new lives in other countries, according to the Office of National Statistics. However, many face major headaches in trying to offload their possessions before they leave.

Now, wewillbuyyourcar.com is offering them a hassle-free way of selling their car by even collecting their vehicle from the airport before they fly off to a fresh start.

Noel Parkinson, founder of wewillbuyyourcar.com, said: "When you decide to start a new life, selling your car is one hassle you can do without, especially when you're pre-occupied with selling your home and other possessions.

"With just a few clicks on the mouse, you can hand over the strain to us and just sit back and wait for the money to appear in your bank account. By offering our free airport collection service, you can even leave it as the last thing to do, reassured by our customer satisfaction levels showing 99 per cent of customers are willing to recommend us to friends and family."

Using bespoke software to make genuine offers based on specific car details, wewillbuyyourcar.com has been listed in the Microsoft Tech Track 100 league table in the Sunday Times for the past two years.

With free collection anywhere in the UK, including airports, funds are transferred into the seller's bank account, normally within 15 minutes, while the driver is at the collection address.

Noel said:

"It's about removing any hassle with dealers, risk through private sales and unnecessary worry before making that life changing big step."
