San Diego attorney Kerry Steigerwalt has written a resource page on auto accident lawsuits for LawyerShop.

San Diego, CA (PRWEB) October 14, 2016 -- Attorney Kerry Steigerwalt has authored an educational page for LawyerShop, a highly respected directory for lawyers throughout the country. This educational page focuses on auto accident lawsuits, and includes important information about what people should consider if they are involved in a collision. By providing a strong overview of these concerns, accident victims will be better equipped to face the challenges ahead.

By authoring this page, Mr. Steigerwalt hopes to provide guidance for injury victims and their loved ones as they consider their legal options moving forward.

Expert Insight into Auto Accident Litigation

Mr. Steigerwalt is an experienced attorney with knowledge and judgment that people can trust. He has more than 30 years of legal experience, and consistently appears on the annual Top 100 National Trial Lawyers list. His decades of dedicated legal service and close work with clients make him an ideal author for this auto accident page on LawyerShop.

Statistics and Facts Reveal the Reality of the Situation

In order to provide a context for his insights, Mr. Steigerwalt opens with sobering auto collisions statistics from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA). He then details the numerous complexities and concerns that clients may face from insurance companies and other parties.

By bluntly stating the facts, readers can understand the reality of the situation ahead. It simply emphasizes the importance of working with an attorney to hold the party responsible for the accident accountable.

A Combination of General Advice and Legal Advice

It was important to Mr. Steigerwalt that the educational page be accessible and comprehensible by people without a legal background. Throughout the auto accident page, he offers a mix of general advice and legal advice.

This combination of information helps injury victims understand what can happen after an auto accident on a step-by-step basis. It also offers a kind of checklist for accident victims, including what evidence to gather in the immediate aftermath of a collision. Having this knowledge could make a major difference for those who are injured in a collision.

A Helpful Overview of the Legal Issues Involved

Injury litigation is a foreign concept to many people, which is why Mr. Steigerwalt provides an overview of legal topics that often come up in auto accident lawsuits. This includes an outline of legal damages, as well as issues that may arise with insurance companies. Like the general advice seeded throughout the educational page, Mr. Steigerwalt empowers readers so they know what issues to keep in mind as they initiate a lawsuit.

Pointing Victims and Their Loved Ones in the Right Direction

Life can be difficult after a serious auto accident. Daily concerns are often secondary to current medical bills, the cost of future rehabilitative care, and the losses sustained as a result of a collision. Mr. Steigerwalt believes his contribution to LawyerShop will serve as a beacon for injury victims. By explaining the legal issues and offering a means to connect with local attorneys, injury victims and their families will be able to pursue justice.
