

Coverdell & Company, Inc. Introduces Carefree Auto, an Auto Expense Protection Plan

People never know when the next big crunch to their wallet is coming, so the Carefree Auto card covers it when it happens. Carefree Auto is not car insurance and not an extended warranty; it covers the expenses in between.

Chicago, IL (PRWEB) July 16, 2016 -- Coverdell and Company, Inc. has unveiled its newest service, Carefree Auto, to the public. The auto expense protection plan works by supplying consumers with a card that covers a plethora of car repair services, all for a low price of $19.95 a month. It covers all of the cars in a household, up to five cars total, no matter the year, make, model, or mileage of the vehicle.

When asked about the new service, Jonty Yamisha, the Chief Marketing Officer at Coverdell, parent company of Carefree Auto, outlined it in the following way:

"For many Americans, our cars are the most valuable things we own. Our cars take us to work, take us to our loved ones, or take us on road trips and adventures. Unfortunately, sometimes our cars can end up costing us a lot of money. That's why we're so excited about the launch of Carefree Auto. Carefree Auto helps protect your wallet against big car expenses."

Cars already cost a lot to buy, operate, and insure, but what about everything else that can go wrong? Consumers never know when the next big crunch to their wallet is coming, so the Carefree Auto card covers them when it happens. Carefree Auto is not car insurance and not an extended warranty; it covers the expenses in between. It gives people the freedom to not worry about something going wrong with their car.
