

Bass player's radio racing show expands to one hour.

Scott Hudson (bass player for the Barnburners with Big Harmonica Bob) just expanded his radio show, Speed Scene, from 1/2 hour to one full hour.

(PRWEB) February 27, 2004 --The bass player from the popular blues band, The Barnburners with Big Harmonica Bob, starts his second year of a motorsports show on KTIE 590 am. KTIE (formally KRLA) has expanded the weekly racing show, The Speed Scene, to a one hour show. Scott "Lucky" Hudson, The bassist for The Barnburners with Big Harmonica Bob, is also a professional Drag Racer. Scott always seems to slip in snatches of local bands including the Barnburners. "Being the writer and host of a show like this gives me a huge base of listeners to expose to local musical talent," said Scott, "besides, music and hotrods are a perfect match." The Speed Scene can be heard every Sunday night at 8:00 to 9:00 and also listened to over the net at www.speedsceneracing.com. The Barnburners with Big Harmonica Bob were nominated for Best Blues band of 2003 by the Orange County music awards.
