(PRWEB) March 17, 2004 --Burgess Movers, headquartered in Randolph, Mass., has recently been honored with the "Rookie of the Year" award by Paul Arpin Van Lines, a leader in the transportation and logistics industries.

The award, presented to Burgess Movers' partners Ken Burgess, Tracie DelGreco and Ken Nutting at the recent Paul Arpin Van Lines Convention in Tucson, Arizona, recognizes the company for outstanding sales and service during their first year as Arpin agents.

"We're thrilled Burgess Movers has received the prestigious "Rookie of the Year" award from Paul Arpin. As an employee-owned moving company, our success can be attributed to the dedication and talent of our entire team," said Ken Burgess, president and partner of Burgess Movers. He continued, "We look forward to continually providing superior customer service and the highest quality moving experience to clients worldwide."

Established in 1918, Burgess Movers became an agent for Paul Arpin Van Lines in late 2002. The company was previously affiliated with Mayflower.
