

VEHICLE SUNSCREEN FANS Invented by InventHelp Client (OCC-1200)

A Pennsylvania-based invention company, InventHelp is attempting to submit the VEHICLE SUNSCREEN FANS to companies for review.

PITTSBURGH, PA (PRWEB) June 06, 2017 -- An inventor, from Whittier, Calif., thought there needed to be a simple way to keep a parked car cool, so he invented the patent-pending VEHICLE SUNSCREEN FANS.

The VEHICLE SUNSCREEN FANS provides an effective way to block sunlight and keep the interior of a parked car cool. In doing so, it offers an improved alternative to traditional sunshades. As a result, it enhances comfort and it provides added protection. The invention features a lightweight design that is convenient and easy to use so it is ideal for vehicle owners. Additionally, the VEHICLE SUNSCREEN FANS is producible in design variations.

The inventor described the invention design. “My design helps to prevent a car’s interior from overheating.”

The original design was submitted to the Orange County office of InventHelp. It is currently available for licensing or sale to manufacturers or marketers.
