

KING SHIELD Invented by InventHelp Client (NJD-1405)

Pittsburgh-based InventHelp is submitting the KING SHIELD to companies for their review and possible consideration.

PITTSBURGH, PA (PRWEB) July 24, 2017 -- An inventor, from Hoboken, N.J., thought there needed to be a better way to cost-efficiently, practically and easily protect and preserve the windows on a car, so he invented the patent-pending KING SHIELD.

The KING SHIELD provides an effective way to protect a vehicle's windows. In doing so, it helps to prevent unwanted damage. As a result, it enhances safety and it provides added peace of mind. The invention features a practical design that is convenient and easy to use so it is ideal for all vehicle owners. It also can lead to potential insurance discounts. Additionally, the KING SHIELD is producible in design variations.

The inventor described the invention design. "My design helps to prevent damage from stones, dirt and other potentially hazardous and costly debris."

The original design was submitted to the New Jersey office of InventHelp. It is currently available for licensing or sale to manufacturers or marketers.
