

$25,000.00 Reward Offered in Wrongful Death Case of Los Angeles Motorcycle Rider Sean Mahaney

Attorneys at the Torkzadeh Law Firm post reward for information leading to the conviction of truck driver responsible for the death of Sean Mahaney

Los Angeles, CA (PRWEB) September 26, 2017 -- The Torkzadeh Law Firm (TorkLaw) is offering a $25,000.00 cash reward to any individual who first provides credible information that leads to the identification, arrest, and conviction of the hit-and-run driver involved in the collision which killed motorcyclist Sean Mahaney. TorkLaw has been retained to prosecute a wrongful death action in this matter on behalf of Mr. Mahaney's Family.

The incident in question occurred at approximately 3:20 p.m. on September 23, 2017, on the southbound Santa Ana Freeway (Interstate 5) north of Whittier Boulevard in Los Angeles. Mahaney, a 47-year-old Tehachapi man, was headed south in the Number 3 lane when he was run over by a semi truck. Mr. Mahaney was pronounced dead at the scene. Unfortunately, the driver of the truck did not stop, but fled the scene of the accident.

Initial investigations have failed to identify the driver of the truck involved in the collision that killed Mr. Mahaney. In a move to encourage public involvement, TorkLaw hereby offers a $25,000.00 cash reward for any individual who first provides credible information that leads to the identification, arrest, and conviction of the truck driver involved in the collision which killed Sean Mahaney.

Anyone with direct information about the incident or the vehicle involved is encouraged to call CHP's Central Los Angeles Office at (213) 744-2331.
