

F&I Express Introduces DingMonkey to its Network of Over 140 Aftermarket Providers

F&I Express is happy to welcome DingMonkey to the largest aftermarket provider network in the nation.

Grapevine, TX (PRWEB) December 22, 2017 -- DingMonkey is a leader in protecting the physical appearance of a vehicle both inside and out. They offer benefits that cover minor cosmetic repairs that standard comprehensive auto insurance typically does not cover.

Through F&I Express' eContracting platform, DingMonkey will provide door ding protection. This option offers peace of mind by helping keep a car look its best and protect the value from depreciating.

“At DingMonkey Inc., we believe the automotive aftermarket industry is in need of a vital change with regard to the way products are presented and ultimately perceived by the consumer,” said Drew Eckman, President of DingMonkey Inc. “F&I express will help us streamline our contracting process.”

F&I Express has the largest network of aftermarket providers in the industry. Digital solutions from award-winning F&I Express include eContracting, eSignature, Express Recoveries aftermarket cancellations, and more. F&I Express streamlines the aftermarket process for optimized efficiency to make F&I easier and more profitable for everyone involved.

“Ding Monkey is an excellent provider to have on our platform when it comes to protecting and repairing a vehicle's physical appearance,” said Brian Reed, CEO of F&I Express. “Their slogan says that every parking lot is a jungle, and it's true! Dealers now have the ability to use the F&I Express platform to quickly eContract the door ding protection that DingMonkey offers.”
