

InventHelp Inventor Develops Special Jewelry for Race Car Fans

InventHelp, founded in 1984 in Pittsburgh, is attempting to submit this idea, the Race Car Necklace, to applicable companies for their consideration.

PITTSBURGH (PRWEB) November 29, 2017 -- An inventor from Cumberland Gap, Tenn., was brainstorming about new ways to express support for favorite race-car drivers, and he eventually came up with this idea for anyone who loves the sport of racing.

The RACE CAR NECKLACE enables a wearer to show his or her support of a favorite race-car driver. It expresses enthusiasm for racing, as well as enhances the wearer's look.

Producible in different sizes, colors, designs and versions, and serving as an alternative to conventional jewelry, the RACE CAR NECKLACE complements many different outfits.

The original design was submitted to the Nashville office of InventHelp. It is currently available for licensing or sale to manufacturers or marketers.
