

Downeast Toyota Hosts Family-Friendly Halloween Event with Brewer Public Library

Thrills 'N' Grilles event features Halloween costume contest and more at Downeast Toyota

BREWER, Maine (PRWEB) October 05, 2018 -- Families in the Bangor area who enjoy Halloween costume contests, games and candy may be interested in attending the Thrills 'N' Grilles Halloween event at Downeast Toyota. Hosted in conjunction with the Brewer Public Library, the event will be held at the dealership on Friday, Oct. 26. Thrills 'N' Grilles will be open to local families from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Bangor-area families who attend this Halloween-themed party will enjoy a costume contest that is geared towards children, ages two to 12. In addition to a festive costume contest, the event will include Halloween treats and candy, family-friendly games and a raffle for a 7-inch Kindle Fire Kids Edition with 16 GB of memory and access to kid-appropriate applications.

In addition to a family-friendly Halloween event, Downeast Toyota provides car shoppers with an extensive selection of brand-new Toyota cars, trucks and crossovers that are headlined by the next-generation 2018 Toyota Camry and many more favorites. To cater to car shoppers on a tighter budget, the dealership provides consumers with affordable lease and finance incentives, Certified Pre-Owned Toyota vehicles and a selection of pre-owned vehicles that include many brands.

Families who live in the Bangor area and want to get in the Halloween spirit may enjoy the Thrills 'N' Grilles Halloween party at Downeast Toyota. Hosted in conjunction with the Brewer Public Library on Oct. 26, the event is expected to provide plenty of fun for local children and their families.
