Matt Castrucci Honda Includes 2018 Honda CR-V In Current Incentives

The 2018 Honda CR-V crossover can be financed at a special rate for a limited time at local Dayton dealership.

DAYTON, Ohio (PRWEB) November 12, 2018 -- Honda customers looking for a deal on a compact crossover can do so at Matt Castrucci Honda. The dealership is currently including the 2018 Honda CR-V in its special offers. Valid through January 2, 2018, the 2018 Honda CR-V can be financed with 1.9 percent APR for 24-36 months, or at 2.9 percent for 37-60 months. This offer is good for well-qualified buyers on approved credit by Honda Financial Services. Customers with lower credit scores may be subject to higher rates.

This offer includes all 2018 Honda CR-V models in stock. The crossover is available in four different trim levels, so drivers with different needs will be satisfied. The base LX model comes standard with LED daytime running lights, Bluetooth connectivity, USB audio and a five-inch color LCD screen. A 184 horsepower, 2.4-liter DOHC inline four-cylinder engine is under the base model's hood.

Those who would like to upgrade their engine can do so by going with the EX, EX-L or Touring trim. Every model above the base level comes standard with a 190-horsepower, turbocharged DOHC four-cylinder engine. Other available features include blind spot monitoring, Apple CarPlay, Android Auto, remote engine start, dual-zone automatic climate control and SiriusXM Satellite Radio.

Those who would like to learn more about this offer and other offers can check out details on the dealer's website. When making an inquiry, customers will be asked to enter personal contact information, so the dealership can reach out to continue the process. Customers can contact Matt Castrucci Honda by calling 855-250-8986 or by visiting 3013 Mall Park Drive in Dayton, Ohio.
