Compare-autoinsurance.org (<http://compare-autoinsurance.org/>) announces a new blog post, "Can Online Quotes Help You Prevent Car Insurance Scams?"

LOS ANGELES (PRWEB) January 05, 2019 -- Compare-autoinsurance.org has released a new blog post that explains how to use car insurance online quotes and avoid scams.

Convincing people into buying useless or inexistent coverage has become a common thing to do for modern thieves. This blog explains the most common insurance scams and how to avoid them.

Getting unsolicited calls from agents and companies are usually a red flag. Furthermore, drivers should not apply to ultra-cheap coverage without researching the agent or the company in the first place. The blog post provides more details, including tips on how to avoid these scams.

Online quotes will help drivers avoid insurance scams. It is recommended to get quotes from licensed, well-established insurance companies. Not from ads promising ultra-cheap coverage and then redirect the user to unknown companies or agents.

Online quotes will present the average costs. If the cost of the advertised insurance policy is 90 percent below average, there's a good chance the policy is either fake or provides very little coverage. Carefully read the terms of the contract.
