

StorageBlue and Adopt A Highway Maintenance Corporation® Are Keeping New Jersey's Highways Litter-Free

In a continuous effort to serve their community, StorageBlue has decided to sponsor four signs in the New Jersey Sponsor A Highway® Program. Each sponsor sign promotes highway litter-removal efforts to keep the roads safe and looking pristine.

ENGLEWOOD CLIFFS, N.J. (PRWEB) January 05, 2019 -- Joining the New Jersey Sponsor A Highway® Program promotes safe travel, along with better environmental practices for the community to enjoy. Endorsing litter-removal efforts shows the New Jersey community that StorageBlue cares about preserving the environment and creating better sustainability practices.

StorageBlue has created a name for themselves through their customer service, storage options, and most importantly, their impact on the community. The team at Adopt A Highway Maintenance Corporation® is proud to gain the support of a company that understands the purpose of giving back to their community.

Based on their philanthropic track record with several reputable organizations, it is an honor to have StorageBlue's sponsorship in the New Jersey Sponsor A Highway® Program. The company's decision to join this program exemplifies their belief in supporting safe and litter-free roads for the New Jersey community to enjoy.

StorageBlue's success and popularity in the self-storage industry continues to grow due to their exceptional customer service. From their on-site management to the various storage unit sizes available for rent, the company understands this is not a "one size fits all" type of service. StorageBlue makes every effort to accommodate the different storage needs of all potential customers.
