PAOLI, Pa. (September 17th, 2019) – For 2019, RAM announced the release of their new fifth-generation RAM 1500, not to be confused with the 2019 RAM 1500 Classic. For the foreseeable future, RAM will continue to produce their ‘classic’ fourth generation pickup alongside their new fifth-generation RAM quarter-ton truck.

Since the fifth-generation RAM 1500 is dimensionally different than its predecessor, the all-new 2019 RAM brings a new generation of truck parts and fitment to AmericanTrucks’ RAM Parts catalog. Truck Bed Covers, sometimes referred to as Tonneau Covers, are a popular first purchase in truck exterior accessories. In this video, host Adam Maqboul selects five 2019 RAM 1500 Bed Covers to discuss, compare, and put to the test.

“There’s a tonneau cover out there for everyone: from soft and hard roll ups, the tri-fold, to the more intricate ones with more bells and whistles like the retractable and hard shell. It all comes down to what features you want out of a bed cover, how much you’re looking to spend, and what you’ll be using your truck for!”—Adam Maqboul
