

New Car Buying Site Attains a Best-in-Class Rating from TopConsumerReviews.com

TRUECar, a leading resource for buying New Cars, receives the highest ranking available from TopConsumerReviews.com for another consecutive year.

OVERLAND PARK, Kan. (PRWEB) January 08, 2020 -- TopConsumerReviews.com recently gave another first-place ranking to TRUECar, a leader among New Car Buying Sites.

Even though some financial gurus advise against buying new when it comes to cars, there are still many advantages to avoiding the used car market. Buying a new car gives vehicle owners warranty protection from the moment they drive off the lot, often for many years after the purchase, and dealerships often include routine maintenance to sweeten the deal. Plus, buying new means that drivers don't have to worry about any hidden damage from accidents that might compromise their safety down the road. And, of course, there's nothing to compare with the clean, new-car-smell interior. Best of all, with so many websites dedicated to helping customers find the perfect new car, it's never been faster, easier, or more hassle-free to drive away in the ideal ride.

“Customers shopping for a new car want transparency, fair pricing, and lots of information about the vehicles they're considering. TRUECar delivers all of that and much more,” explained Brian Dolezal of TopConsumerReviews.com, LLC. “What we love about using TRUECar is their commitment to the customer experience, taking out everything that shoppers hate about the New Car buying experience and making it trustworthy and streamlined. For example, when you use the service, you can rest assured that you won't get any of those annoying texts, emails and phone calls hoping for your business: TRUECar only passes your information along to dealers you have explicitly chosen to work with. And, using the TRUECar website is so easy: just click on the features you're looking for and within a few seconds you'll be able to see what's available in your area, as well as the average price for that vehicle where you live. With more than 11,000 dealers in the network, TRUECar remains the internet's most popular destination for buying a new vehicle. For all of these reasons and more, TRUECar once again earns our highest ranking among New Car Buying Sites in 2020.”
