One of the biggest mistakes any driver can do is no scan the insurance market on a regular basis. In the past, drivers could have spent days in order to obtain several insurance quotes, but today, with the help of the internet, drivers only need several minutes to obtain multiple car insurance quotes in order to compare. In many cases drivers can save hundreds of dollars each year if they compare several quotes.

To obtain better car insurance plans, policyholders can do the following:

- Always get car insurance quotes from local insurance companies. The local departments of motor vehicle website contain information about the car insurance companies that are authorized to sell insurance policies. Checking this info will help drivers avoid scammers. Drivers can obtain trusty online quotes from brokerage websites that ask for their ZIP code or address. All they have to do is to complete an online questionnaire with the correct details in order to obtain multiple quotes to compare.
- Protect the no-claim bonus (NCB). A long no-claim bonus will significantly lower the insurance premiums of any driver. Depending on the insurance company, the no-claim bonus can be obtained if a driver made no claims in the pest three of five years.
- Select higher deductibles. One of the easiest ways to save money on car insurance is by agreeing to pay more towards accident repairs when it happens. However, drivers should ensure they have enough money if they are required to make a claim.
