

Attorney Kevin Coluccio achieves NBTA Board Certification in Truck Accident Law

Kevin Coluccio is one of the first 50 lawyers in the U.S. to earn NBTA Board Certification in Truck Accident Law.

SEATTLE (PRWEB) November 13, 2020 -- The National Board of Trial Advocacy (NBTA) has announced that Kevin Coluccio of Coluccio Law has successfully achieved Board Certification as a Truck Accident Law Advocate.

Kevin Coluccio is one of the first 50 attorneys in the United States to earn NBTA Board Certification in Truck Accident Law. Coluccio joins a growing number of a very select group of trial attorneys who have taken the time to prove competence in their practice area by earning Board Certification.

Board Certification is among the highest and most stringent honors an attorney can achieve. For Truck Accident Law, attorney applications must include: demonstration of substantial trial experience, submission of judicial and peer references to attest to their competency, attendance of continuing legal education courses, submission of legal writing documents, proof of good standing and finally, passing a comprehensive examination.

The NBTA was formed out of a strong conviction that both the law profession and its clients would benefit from an organization designed specifically to create an objective set of standards illustrating an attorney's experience and expertise in the practice of trial law. NBTA Board Certifications are the only distinctions awarded by non-profit organizations. Only about three percent of American lawyers are Board Certified in any practice area.

"My law practice has always been dedicated to creating real and positive change in people's lives. I am proud to continue my work on behalf of truck crash victims with Board Certification in Truck Accident Law," Coluccio says.

For over than 30 years, Kevin Coluccio has been working to protect seriously injured people and the families of those who have died. He is licensed to practice law in Washington and Oregon. His work, including numerous commercial truck crash cases, has earned over $300 million dollars for injury and death claims.
