

RV SnapPad® & etrailer.com Forge New Online Reseller Partnership

etrailer.com will begin carrying the entire SnapPad product line immediately.

MISHAWAKA, Ind. (PRWEB) February 11, 2020 -- Origen RV Accessories, parent company to RV SnapPad, is excited to announce a new online reseller partnership with etrailer.com. The deal will enable the world's largest online trailer and RV marketplace to sell the entire SnapPad catalog.

The RV SnapPad collection of products includes permanent jack pads for a variety of RVs, including Fifth Wheels, Class A, B & C Motorhomes as well as some Truck Campers and Travel Trailers.

Scott Herbst, a manager at etrailer.com, said "We are excited to offer the SnapPad brand to our customers for the first time. SnapPads are a one-of-a-kind product and a great fit for us. We look forward to bringing additional camping convenience to the RV community via our partnership with Origen RV Accessories."

etrailer.com sells thousands of vehicle and RV accessories, compatible with over 3,100 different vehicles. They are renowned for their breadth of offerings as well as their comprehensive product knowledge and high-level customer service.

Devon Wilson, COO at Origen RV Accessories, notes, "etrailer.com is a well known and respected online source for recreational, automotive and RV parts & accessories. SnapPads are a natural fit in their product mix and our team is excited to be working with Scott and the etrailer team."

The entire SnapPad collection can now be purchased via etrailer.com at <https://www.etrailer.com/s.aspx?qry=snappads>. For compatibility information, etrailer product experts can be reached 1-800-298-8924.
