

Dr. Toy Picks Baby Road Trip Beach as a "Best Children's Vacation Product for 2004"

(PRWEB) May 27, 2004 -- Dr. Stevanne Auerbach, Ph.D/Dr.Toy, a child development expert and trusted source for parents on toys that are fun, developmentally appropriate and promote active, creative and educational skills, has selected a new children's travel video, Baby Road Trip Beach as a 2004 winner Best Children's Vacation Product"

The report put out by Dr. Toy represents a careful selection from among hundreds of innovative products. "Parents must plan, prepare, and shop ahead for their children's leisure time. Not only pack sunscreen and hats, but take along toys, books and games to keep little ones safe while in the home, car, or on the plane, and at your destination," says Dr. Toy. Dr. Toy's selections help parents offer a healthy balance of positive activities for travel, skill building, physical development, hobbies, crafts, and year round home creativity.

Dr. Toy describes Baby Road Trip Beach as "a perfect-for-summertime video which takes children on a trip to the beach with real-life sunshine and surf, images of children at play, unusual toys and Road Trip Ryan as the host". Parents can go on line (<http://www.drtoy.com>) to find out more about Baby Road Trip Beach and other high quality and creative children's products that are recommended for travel or at home.

The Baby Road Trip Video Series takes children 6 months to 4 years of age on educational and entertaining musically themed journeys to different destinations. Says Dr. Toy, "The musical themes (reggae, island and surf) will prove to be a stimulating and fun adventure. The quality is excellent, and will be sure to capture your child's interest".

The videos suggested retail is $14.99 for the VHS and $18.99 for the DVD and a percentage of the profits go to benefit the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation.
