(PRWEB) June 11, 2004 -- THE hottest (or the coolest?) classic car in the UK returned home in triumph to Scotland today after scoring a great success south of the Border.

Scottish solicitor Norman Geddes from Ayr scooped two top awards at a major classic car show last weekend.

Maserati Club Concours d'Élegance was held in the elegant surroundings of Stanford Park in Leicestershire.

Norman's Maserati Indy pulled off first prize in the Cars of the Seventies class, and then topped that by winning the overall Best Car in the Show award.

Having only recently caught the classic car bug, Norman was naturally delighted with his triumph.

He said: "It was a great thrill to win the Concours at the first attempt. The competing cars were all in magnificent condition, and I am delighted to be the first person to bring the Maserati UK Trophy back to Scotland. Maserati built sensational GT cars, particularly in the 1960s and 70s, and I am enjoying driving such a fine example."

Norman Geddes is senior partner at Frazer Coogans Solicitors of Dalblair Road in Ayr.
