

Should the Voter's Repeal the California Drivers License Law? Permits Illegal Immigrants to be licensed in California

Emmy Award winning Full Disclosure Network's host Leslie Dutton takes on the California Drivers License Law and proposed Referendum on a two-part program featuring a former State Senator and prominent Latino political leaders.

(PRWEB) August 6, 2004 -- Emmy Award winning Full Disclosure Network's host Leslie Dutton takes on the California Drivers License Law and proposed Referendum on a two-part program featuring a former State Senator and prominent Latino political leaders. Senator Dick Mountjoy (ret) and was the Legislative sponsor of Proposition 187 is the organizer of the Save Our License Committee sponsoring the Referendum on the 2003 California Drivers License Law. Opponents Nativo Lopez and Xavier Reyes appear on the program with Mountjoy are leading the battle statewide against the Referendum, appealing to the immigrant Latino community.

Senator Richard Mountjoy (ret.) & Nativo Lopez, President MAPA debate the Referendum to Repeal the 2003 California Drivers License Law (SB60) which permits illegal aliens to obtain driver's licenses) and the lack of security in the new law. Mountjoy argues that the referendum is important because the new law neglects including fingerprints and background checks in issuing the new licenses, which could allow illegal aliens to vote and purchase firearms.

Senator Richard Mountjoy (ret.) & Xavier Reyes, Director of Communications & Education, CHIRLA discuss the effects of the 2003 California Drivers License Law to offer driver's licenses to illegal aliens and the costs due to fact that the majority of illegal aliens fall into the category of uninsured motorists and debate whether the referendum to Repeal should go forward.
