(PRWEB) August 19, 2004 -- CraneMorley has won a Telly Award for its video training program $\hat{A} \square Seasoned$ Rider, $\hat{A} \square$ produced for the Motorcycle Safety Foundation (MSF). The program is part of MSF $\hat{A} \square S$ Basic RiderCourse. $\hat{A} \square S$ Seasoned Rider $\hat{A} \square$ is designed to create awareness of the physical and psychological changes that occur with aging and provides corresponding strategies to help older riders continue to safely enjoy motorcycling.

CraneMorley of Long Beach, California, a premier provider of media and training produced the program for MSF. $\hat{A} \Box$ The best part about creating this show was that MSF let us find experienced riders to tell the story. Those individuals were very interesting and gave the show more impact than a traditional host/video approach, $\hat{A} \Box$ said the video $\hat{A} \Box$ s producer, Craig Hotti.

Founded in 1978, the Telly Awards is the premier award honoring outstanding local, regional, and cable TV commercials and programs, as well as the finest video and film productions. The Telly Awards annually showcases the best work of the most respected advertising agencies, production companies, television stations, cable operators, and corporate video departments in the world.
