

DollarsInYourDriveway.com offers a unique approach to earning extra income.

DollarsInYourDriveway.com is an easy to follow step by step program that teaches people how to buy and sell cars for profit from their home regardless of their level of experience.

(PRWEB) September 3, 2004 -- Bill Buysse is happy to announce the launching of DollarsInYourDriveway.com into a niche market that is virtually untapped. The Dollars In Your Driveway program is a sequential step by step course that consists of 5 manuals, 2 audio cd's, a tire tread gauge and a bondo checker. It is sequential in that it follows the entire process of buying and selling a car from start to finish with no details left unchecked.

With a background of over 30 years managing dealerships and training salespeople, Buysse is confident he can teach anyone how to make a lot of extra money buying and selling cars. "DollarsInYourDriveway.com offers an unprecedented opportunity to add additional income to your household by offering for sale a commodity that most people own and love to exchange often, says Buysse."
