

Wriker Chevrolet partners with United Way of Franklin County Tennessee this year for a 2nd annual Truck Driveaway.

(PRWEB) September 5, 2004 -- Wriker Chevrolet partners with United Way of Franklin County this year for a 2nd annual "Truck Driveaway". Wriker will be giving away a 2004 Chevy Colorado or $10,000 cash to the winner of person's eligible to win through United Way of Franklin County. Anyone contributing an hour's pay per month through payroll deduction through their employer or an individual giving a $100 one-time denotation is eligible for the truck.

Wriker owner Mr. Fred Walker remarks: The thirty-one years I've been a dealer here in Winchester, Tennessee have been wonderful. Our store has changed drastically in those 31 years. We have grown from a small rural Tennessee dealership to a regional retailer for Chevrolet, Pontiac & GMC cars and trucks. We also market a full line of Exiss aluminum horse trailers and stock trailers. This growth allows us to be a compassionate partner in the community.

Deadline for eligibility is: Oct 8, 2005

Truck will be given away at half-time October 15, 2004 at the Franklin County football game. If you have any questions call the United Way office at 962-0103.
