Hemphill will pilot his ever-strong #64 TRIMPSEA Dodge® for the running of the ReadyHosting.com® 200 at the smooth 1.5 mile layout in Joliet, Illinois.

“I’ve had a few weeks off and I am ready to get back behind the wheel of this TRIMPSEA Dodge,” said Hemphill. “We’ve had an incredible season so far and I look to finish strong in the last few races of season starting this weekend at Chicagoland. We tested strong here a few weeks ago and we are bringing a brand new Dodge for the race. I have all the confidence in the world in my crew chief, Greg Tester, and the guys on this crew to give me a great hot rod for the race.”

The 200-mile event will mark the career debut for the Apollo, Pennsylvania native at the D-shaped speedway of Chicagoland. Other tracks have not been a problem for Ryan this year as he collected wins at Kentucky, Lowe’s and Kansas.
